Miss Fannie Wilson

My Dearest one

In answer to yours of a few days past, Will say I was not at home and did not get it until I came home this week.

Well Sweet heart I hope you have not give me out for not writing sooner. for I have not nor never will forget my dear Fannie as of years and sweet smiling face that I have not seen in so long it seems as if it had been a year, but hope to my sweet heart in the near future; Well I have not very much news to write only I have been to several weddings in the past few weeks Oh how I wish you could have
